Ridgewood Graduate and Student Teachers Receives Award

Mr. Kyle Bethel has been awarded the Lester D. Crow Education Award from Ohio University. He is currently student teaching fifth grade ELA at Ridgewood Middle School. Christopher McVay is his cooperating teacher. Mr. McVay has indicated that Kyle has done a tremendous job and is very proud of him. The Gladys W. and David H. Patton College of Education recognize four professional interns who show exceptional promise as future teachers. Named after a distinguished graduate, this award was established to recognize graduating seniors who possess high scholastic averages, who demonstrate strong moral and ethical values, and who show exceptional promise as future teachers. Two women and two men will receive this honor along with a $500 award.
